The National Conservatory of Music of America

126 W. 79TH STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Incorporated in 1885, Chartered in 1891 by Special Act of Congress

MRS. JEANNETTE M. THURBER,

Founder and President

The faculty of this institution is of world-wide reputation and the pedagogic system pursued has been productive of the highest results. Every department is unique—at its head a teacher who has won artistic honors and has had large experience as instructor. The orchestral classes attracted much talent last season and the series of public concerts will be continued. The operatic classes are filling in. Do not forget that genuine talent will be carefully nurtured and developed at the National Conservatory, as the remarkable history of the Institution so conclusively proves.

Admission Daily.

TUITION FEES MODERATE.
